SATURDAY MORNING, NOV 21, 1863

[From our Weekly of this morning]

Our New Volume.

This morning we publish the first number of our fourteenth volume Our readers will pardon us, on this occasion, for briefly alluding to our position, prospects and purposes Since the OREGONIAN was first issued, in 1850, our city has made rapid and surprising progress in population and in the arts of civilization and refinement At that time, hardly more than a single street along the bank of the river, was occupied by the pioneers of Portland—now our thriving, industrious, enterprising and intelligent community has covered a large area with churches, school houses, dwellings, ware houses, stores and the shops of busy mechanics Then, steam was scarcely used for river navigation—now, it drives numerous and comfortable boats along our water avenues of communication, bringing to our wharves the agricultural productions of the Willamette valley and the vast mineral wealth of the Northern mines Then, Oregon was a weak and sparsely settled Territory—now, it wears the dignity of a State, and takes part in the councils of the Nation Its progress has given an impulse and prosperity to every department of intelligent labor In our sphere of duty, their influence has been especially felt —every year and month growing stronger and giving more welcome support, so that during the last twelve months, our circulation of the Weekly paper has increased more than one third, while the Daily, established nearly three years ago goes now to nearly eight hundred subscribers, so that it is our privilege with we hope a just and honest pride to boast that the OREGONIAN is established on a more substantial and profitable foundation than ever before We do not think it necessary or expedient to institute comparisons with other journals in the State, if any are more successful than we have been, their prosperity shall not excite our jealousy

The recent discoveries of valuable mines in Idaho and Washington, have drawn thither large numbers of seekers for the precious metals, who have been our liberal patrons, and we trust they have had no occasion to regret their confidence, so generously manifested The future of that wonderful region cannot be over estimated. We have scarcely a doubt that another year will find its population more than doubled, and so far as lies in our power, we shall make especial exertions to supply it with truthful and interesting intelligence In a few weeks the Telegraph line will be completed to Portland, placing us in daily communication with California and the Atlantic States Of that, and of every other possible facility for acquiring information, we shall avail ourselves, so that our patrons may rest assured, that whatever news may be worth reading, will without fail, promptly find a place in our columns

As in the past, so in the future, the OREGONIAN will stand firmly by the Government in its efforts to save this blessed Union, to quell the ungodly rebellion, now rearing its defiant head in the land, and to reduce to subjection to lawful authority, the lawless miscreants, whose mad ambition and treason have poured out upon this nation all the horrors of a civil war We have no terms to make with traitors—no excuses for them, or the equally vile scourges of the land,—their sympathizers at the North And while seeking and laboring for the success and safety of the whole country in its fiery trial, we shall endeavor to do our utmost to promote and extend the prosperity of our State, our county, and our rapidly growing city, by earnestly advocating every measure for the development of our great natural resources, and particularly the beneficent schemes of internal improvement which are the sure and grand avenues of wealth, of strength and of progress

Thus acting in our humble sphere, we shall hope for a continuance and an increase of the generous support which has hitherto been given to our enterprise by the good people of Oregon and the adjacent Territories We are profoundly grateful for the kind patronage which we have received, and will endeavor to prove this by unremitting exertions to make our paper instructive and useful to those who read it, a credit to the State whose name it bears, and a cause of just pride to the city, in which it is our privilege to publish it

To our brethren of the press, from whom we have received many courtesies, we give our birth day salutations They merit our admiration for their efforts to do their duty as they understand it, and while we wish them success in their several spheres, we hope they will believe us sincere in expressing the hope that "no root of bitterness may ever spring up" between us and any of them

Our Terms for the Weekly will be as heretofore, $3 00 per annum The impression which has been circulated, that our charge is $5 00, is error, which we will thank our friends to correct whenever it is reported

NO DISPATCH —We understand, by telegraph from Salem that no dispatch may be expected by the stage due here this morning The line between this city and Salem is in excellent working order

Railroads in Oregon

One of the most intelligent and sagacious citizens of this State has kindly furnished us the subjoined copy of a letter written by him to Senator Nesmith, in relation to increased facilities for transportation on this part of the Pacific Coast As will be seen the resolutions recently passed at Eugene City already published by us suggested the reason for the letter and as the writer purposes to follow this with others on the same topic, we hope he will also permit us to give them to our readers for their gratification and instruction

Nov 15 1863

To HON J W NESMITH—Dear Sir —The enclosed resolutions furnish the subject upon which I propose to write you a few letters this winter, and I only regret I can advance so little on so great a theme

The reasons why the people of Oregon give their support to a railroad connection with California by the route nearest the coast under restrictions, are briefly these California being by far the wealthiest and strongest of the Pacific States and as wealth attracts wealth, it is now drawing away the substance, and building up its emporium at the expense of its weaker sisters and without some counteracting influence, each line of communication opened between the strong State and its tributaries while it improves the commercial facilities of a section and increases the wealth of individuals has the general tendency of increasing the disparity between the strong and the weak

It is therefore the interest of each community or State, where nature permits, to make its centres of commerce within itself, so that the wealth flowing towards them from the extremes may not be entirely lost, but return again in the shape of public institutions and improvements, and lighter taxation

With the restrictions, that the subsidies granted by Congress and the means furnished by corporations shall be expended in equal portions, and the work begun at the same time at each end of the road, we as Oregonians favor the Columbia and Sacramento Railroad For, until the road is completed the trade of Oregon will centre at a port of its own, and in the meantime, (thanks to Providence for forming, and the lucky miners for finding, the gold fields in Eastern Oregon) the northern branch of the Pacific Railroad may, from an idea, become a reality

It is by the building of the northern branch of the Pacific Railroad only that Oregon will become a great, prosperous and independent State Without this direct communication with the East, such projects as the Columbia and Sacramento Railroad will be merely chains to bind us in vassalage to our strong neighbor forever.

But if the basin of the Columbia and California are equally accessible from the East, we may safely rely upon our virgin gold fields our superior agricultural lands, and magnificent timber to attract to Oregon and its tributary, Idaho, a large portion of the emigration from the East, which we expect as a consequence of the rebellion, and then a direct railroad communication with California will only promote the intercourse of equals

Leaving the Pacific Railroad at Salt Lake City, or east of that point, it is my opinion a railroad descending the valley of Snake river will be valuable to the Government for military purposes, a paying investment to capitalists and make of Oregon a great State

Every twenty miles completed will pay a handsome dividend, for though the valley of Snake river is itself worthless, recent explorations have discovered in the mountains on both sides of it many oases fit for farming and grazing purposes, and that these mountains are rich in the precious metals which for an indefinite period will afford remunerative employment for the thousands left idle by the close of the war

I therefore feel assured that as the representative of Oregon you can in no other way render so great a service to your State as by procuring the speedy construction of the northern branch of the Pacific Railroad With it Oregon will be great, independent and prosperous—without it we will be a mere appendage, like Nevada, to the "Golden State"

Very truly yours,

ALLEGED NIGGER WITCHERY.—The Stockton Independent of November 12th seriously publishes the following

And old negro woman started from Sonora, Tuesday morning last, en route for San Francisco, who, when she took her seat in the coach, attracted the attention of the boys on account of her having the reputation of being a witch Often had she strown salt in the path of parties to whom she wished "bad luck," and, as bad luck would have it every time the "hag" prophesied it, it seems her prognostications were fulfilled When she started on the stage the boys rallied round the coach and prophesied "bad luck," and, sure enough, the driver, the most attentive and careful man in the country, met with the worst luck he has ever had in his life Shortly after the stage started from Sonora, one of the thoroughbraces broke These were fixed, and when the coach again was put under way one of the horses was soon stripped of its harness, by and by a horse broke its leg then another horse was substituted which broke its leg also By this time the driver thought the devil was to pay and the passengers joined the chorus, but the negro woman kept chuckling heartily, evidently believing that her reputation for witchery was fully verified We are waiting to hear what luck the Helen Hensley had in taking the old black hag to San Francisco

ANOTHER IDAHO RUNAWAY —The Sacramento Bee reports that Timothy Kissin was arrested last week in San Francisco for being drunk, and that there was found on his person a warrant for a charge of perjury from Daniel McLaughlin Judge in Idaho Territory, dated the 23d of September last The prisoner will be retained in custody until a requisition is made from the authorities of Idaho for his transportation to that Territory

REVIVAL OF ZEAL FOR SUFFERING SOLDIERS The new subscription in aid of the Sanitary Commission in San Francisco meets with great success The California Steam Navigation Company subscribed $6,000 to the Fund Donahoe, Ralston & Co $250 per month, and many other heavy firms in proportion Will not this magnificent generosity arouse the people of Oregon to new efforts and sacrifices in behalf of those who sacrifice home, health and even life not less for us than for themselves?

EASTERN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov 11 —Secretary Chase has [illegible] $50,000,000 legal tender currency with a view to relieving the stringency in the market

NEW YORK, Nov 11 —A special dispatch dated Washington, November 11th, says: The general position of the Army of the Potomac is unchanged Buford's cavalry passed through Culpepper and reconnoitered the enemy's position on the Rapidan Ewell's and Early's forces were encamped nearly parallel to the Rappahannock on Saturday night, the right resting below Kelly's Ford and the left near [illegible] on the Aetham river Evidences exist of the precipitate retreat before Meade's masterly movements

NEW YORK, Nov 12 —A special dispatch to the Times dated Washington, November 11th, says: It is positively ascertained that the whole rebel infantry force crossed the Rapidan on Sunday (8th) The only forces left this side are reconnoitering parties of Stuart's cavalry, covering the rebel front on the south bank of the Rapidan which they are fortifying with care The intention of the rebels to render [illegible] this Winter between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan is an established fact From Brandy Station to the Rapidan log huts capable of accommodating fifteen thousand men had been erected Our advance of Saturday (7th) effected its object in preserving the twenty four miles of railroad and telegraph between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan Both are in perfect working order The railroad bridge across the Rappahannock will be done next Monday Lee's army is at Gordonsville Exclusive of cavalry it does not much exceed thirty thousand men Our cavalry force has already been as far south as the Rapidan, reconnoitering the enemy's position Two divisions of cavalry from Lee's army were recently sent to East Tennessee Guerrillas are [illegible] at [illegible] our charges [illegible] death We daily lose [illegible] mule Within a month about seventy wagons, five hundred mules and a hundred soldiers, commissioned officers and enlisted men have been captured

The force sent to operate against Burnside in East Tennessee has been recalled, and will form a junction with the main army at Charlottesville or Gordonsville This will depend entirely upon the rapidity of Meade's movements

A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac to the Herald dated November 11th says For the present General Meade having driven the enemy to the south side of the Rapidan has accomplished his mission, but will be ready to move still further as soon as the repairs of the railroad shall bring his base of supplies within easy distance Perfect quiet reigns throughout the camp except the cry for sutlers' stores A number of paymasters started to day for the front to pay off the troops It is expected the Army of the Potomac will be paid within a few days

NEW YORK Nov 12th —The Post's Washington special dispatch says Burnside's forces are concentrated in and about Knoxville

Members of the Diplomatic Corps freely express the opinion that a war in Europe next year is inevitable It is understood that the position of Russia toward France and England is haughty, and likely to continue so

ST LOUIS, Nov 12th —A special dispatch from Cairo says A dispatch from Eastport (Miss) dated Nov 9th says Gen Lee is at Chattanooga Bragg has been sent to Mobile Longstreet has been left in command in Virginia

The vote of this State [Missouri] is very close and it will probably require the official returns to decide

CAIRO, Nov 12 —Memphis papers contain an announcement that the steamer Allyn Collier was captured and robbed and burned twelve miles below Helena (Ark), a few days since At last accounts nothing had been heard of the crew

WASHINGTON, Nov 11 —Adjutant Gen Thomas in a communication to the War Department dated at Natchez says It is a significant fact that no transports on the river had been fired into from that part of the river bank covered by leased plantations extending for 75 miles above Vicksburg which shows the importance of commencing to line the river with a loyal population He also says that on the 15th of October the gathering of cotton was in full operation The experiment adopted partly from necessity of employing the freedmen for wages on the plantations he now regards as a complete success

NEW YORK November 12th The transport Daniel Webster, from New Orleans October 29th, brings news of the departure from New Orleans, under Major General Banks in person, of an expedition which for some weeks had been fitting out under direction of Major General Dana The number of troops composing the expedition is not announced but the fleet of transports was quite numerous The steamer McClellan is the flag ship of the fleet which includes sixteen steamers Several schooners and tugs were also attached to the fleet as tenders to the transports Three small gunboats convoy the expedition, namely the Monongahela the Owasco and the Virginia These vessels are under command of Captain Strong of the Monongahela The fleet crossed the bar at Southwest Pass on the morning of October 27th for its destination Orders were issued that immediately after anchoring on the enemy's coast the men should be provided with four days cooked rations every soldier should be supplied with forty rounds of ammunition Those on board the transports which carry ammunition were to take twenty rounds extra

The Nineteenth and Thirteenth Army Corps were still in the vicinity of Opelousas

CHICAGO, Nov 12 —Secretary Stanton has telegraphed to the Mayors of the several cities as follows under date of Washington—midnight

"Lord Lyons, the British Minister, has to night officially notified the Government that from telegraphic information received from the Gov General of Canada there is reason for belief that a plot has been set on foot by citizens hostile to the United States, who have found a refuge in Canada to destroy Buffalo They propose to take possession of the steamboats on the lake, proceed to Johnson's Island where there is 3,000 rebel prisoners and set fire to the Prisons set free the prisoners and proceed to Buffalo The Government will use all means within its power to suppress any hostile attack from Canada but as other towns and cities on the lakes are exposed, it is deemed necessary to take this means to communicate this information to you in order that such precautions may be taken as the circumstances of the case will permit The Governor General suggests that steamboats or other vessels giving cause for suspicion by the number or character of the persons on board shall be arrested

CINCINNATI, Nov 12 —Considerable excitement prevails in the northern part of the State in consequence of the anticipated attack from Johnson's Island Active and energetic steps have been taken by the Government in the matter

Buffalo is perfectly secure against attack should one be made Troops and batteries have been ordered there from several parts of this State The Government has also ordered a gunboat there Whatever apprehension of attack may have existed it is not probable that any will now be made there There are about 2,000 rebel officers on Johnson's Island Those recently captured by Meade are also on route

THE SANITARY FUND —The Soldiers' Relief Committee of San Francisco, have received a letter from Rev Henry W Bellows, informing them that the Sanitary Fund is very low and that continued contributions are necessary The Rev gentleman says

Our expenses are fifty thousand dollars a month We can live three months and that only without large support from the Pacific Twenty five thousand dollars a month paid regularly while the war lasts from California, would make our continuance on our present magnificent scale of beneficence a certainty We would make up the other twenty five thousand dollars a month here We have already distributed sanitary stores of the value of seven millions of dollars, to all parts of the army at a cost of three per cent If we abandon our work or to allow it to dwindle would be a horrible calamity to the army and the cause We never stood so well with the nation but California has been our main support in money and if she fails we are lost The Board impartially urge me to go out to California and tell her all we owe her for past favors and all we need and hope But how can I turn beggar to such a benefactor? When California needs my presence for such an object she will ask for it Meanwhile I know your Committee's represent the soldiers' wants and our Commission better than I could do in person So organize if possible a monthly subscription, and let us feel that California's trusted will [illegible] upon us in her past spirit to the end Telegraph fully in reply God bless California

In reply to this communication the Call says

On the basis of this appeal—remarkable for its concise appeal to patriotic generosity—the Relief Committee have issued an address in which they earnestly urge the people to enable them to respond affirmatively to the letter Mr Bellows assures us that $25,000 a month will carry the Sanitary Commission fully through the war Let us double or quadruple the sum If a magnificent monument will enable the Sanitary Committee to perpetuate their benign labor, let us open our purse strings and send forward the checks We must remember that here in California we are exempt from all the miseries and burdens which war carries to the hearthstones of our Atlantic neighbors

We would throw out the suggestion that the object of the Committee would be materially advanced by the organization throughout the city and State of a subscription list Less than 25 cents a month on every voter in the State would make up more than the required amount The sum would not be missed by many and a few would increase it twenty fold We offer this suggestion knowing that its adoption would be followed by the most salutary result

FIRE DEPARTMENT ELECTION —The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department have ordered the annual election for Chief Engineer and two Assistants to be holden at the House of Willamette Engine Co No 1, on the first Monday in December, polls open at 10, and close at 4 P M The Board has appointed Thomas Temple, of Vigilance H & L Co No 1, Ben L Norden, of Multnomah Engine Co, No 2, and Alex Dodge, of Columbian Engine Co, No 3, Judges of Election

THE NEW CHURCH —The new Presbyterian Church, corner of Washington and Second streets, was yesterday freed from the network of staging which has hitherto surrounded it, and now stands a monument of architectural beauty, to commemorate the devotional spirit and Christian liberality of the good people of Portland It would be regarded an ornament in more pretentious cities and is the noblest and loftiest structure in the State The basement has some time been devoted to Sabbath and week evening religious exercises, but the rapidly growing congregation will create the necessity for an expeditious completion of the more commodious main edifice above We learn that it is the intention of the Trustees, if possible to get the house in readiness for occupation during the winter.

BARK JULIA COBB —This fine vessel, which some time since arrived here direct from New York with a cargo, has been towed down to Oak Point, by the steamer John H Couch, where she will take in a cargo of lumber for San Francisco

GOLD DUST —Wells, Fargo & Co received by the Hunt last evening only one hundred pounds of gold dust What amount came down in private hands, we have no means of knowing

ANNUAL MEETING — The stockholders of the Columbia River Road Company hold their annual meeting in this city on Wednesday, Dec 2d, at 9 A M

INCOHERENT TELEGRAMS — We have been frequently annoyed of late by the incoherencies and inaccurate statements which characterise some of our dispatches We negotiated for the regular and prompt transmission of the news, or so much as would enable us to present to our readers a correct and comprehensive knowledge of what was passing near the great life battle fields of our Government and our country Not a few of the synopses thus published have jumbled together the accounts of simultaneous engagements in different localities, until the dispatches give just about as lucid an idea of the true state of affairs, as the San Diego Herald did of its political preferences under John Phoenix, during the Gubernatorial contest of Bigler and Waldo in '53 On Thursday, our dispatch gave an incoherent account of a threatened invasion of Northern cities by rebels from Canada, and a rambling sketch of some proposed expedition under Gen Banks In order that our readers may fully understand the facts, we give this morning fuller dispatches, received since, which are more intelligible The time is not distant when irregular and disconnected telegrams can be avoided, and the news appear in San Francisco and Portland at the same time

WILLAMETTE THEATRE —To night the popular melo drama entitled "Nick of the Woods, or the Jibbenainosay," with Mr Waldron as Nick, will be presented, to be followed by the "Honey Moon" These pieces together present quite an attraction

IN our advertising columns will be found the card of Dr Noble, who has recently come to reside, and to pursue his profession as a physician and surgeon in our city He brings a high reputation, and we doubt not that his experience and ability will speedily secure for him a fair share of general patronage

COPPERHEAD PLATFORM —The Copperheads all cry out We belong to a white man's party—we would live in a white man's country Query Is a country less a white man's country with the black men free, than it is with the black men slave?

SANITARY FUND —From Mrs. E Ainsworth, Treasurer of the Ladies' Oregon Sanitary Aid Society, $86 in coin and $20 in currency

A Go[illegible]d Story — The Philad[illegible]lphia Gazette tells the following excellent story on a merchant of that city —

A showily dressed woman not bad looking recently entered a handsome store along the promenade She looked like the wife of a man who had suddenly [illegible] money by army contracts Her harness was g[illegible] but the wearer evidently was only lately accustomed to indulge in finery She entered the 'principal depot' of a citizen who among other proprietary articles, is the inventor of a celebrated hair tonic.

As she entered, proprietor was behind the counter—a matter rather rare for him—and with his hat on his head He personally waited on her asking with his best smile

"What can I show you, ma am?"

"Why your hair tonic"

"Here it is ma am"—producing a bottle of the article

"This is what makes hair grow, doe[illegible] it?"

"Yes, ma am you ll find a little pamphlet inside the wrapper with many certificates from people who have been bald"

"Humph! What s the price?"

"A dollar a bottle, ma'am—six bottles fo[illegible] five dollars"

"You re certain it ll bring hair in?"

"It never fails unless the hair is destroyed by disease"

"Well, I ve got a bald spot on the top of my head I'd give five hundred dollars to have it covered again"

Proprietor said he had no doubt the tonic would accomplish the result and the lady ordered the half dozen to be sent to her house Proprietor, took the address As the lady turned to leave the store the proprietor removed his hat showing a head whose crown was innocent of covering

"Well, I declare!" exclaimed the lady transfixed, looking at him in blank astonishment

"What is it madam?"

"Why, I swear if you ain't bald yourself!"

Proprietor was about to rejoin, but the lady continued

"I don't want that hair grease o' yourn now I jest believe you re lyin"

Proprietor attempted to explain, but lady wouldn't listen

Employment of Southern Women — A letter from Vicksburg says

If one may judge of such a matter correctly from what may be seen in this army daily of Southern ladies, the popular opinion at the North that they are more ornamental than useful is a great mistake No lazy Pawnee or Flathead chief depends more completely upon the labor of his squaws for a livelihood than does the high born Southron of this section in these evil times Does he want rations (all of them do) upon which to subsist his family—he sends his wife, if she be pretty, or his handsomest daughter, to negotiate for them with the nearest division or corps commander Does he want a pass to go out of the lines, or a permit to remain within them or a parole to keep out of prison, or a barrel to haul water in, or permission to occupy an abandoned house, or the privilege of vending pies and small beer, or a pair of mules or a set of harness, or a guard to arrest pillagers in each and every such case he sends his wife sister or daughter, if he has one, to make the necessary application to the authorities If there are no females in his own family he borrows one and sends her The reason for this anomalous state of things is I suppose, twofold In the first place the distinctive traits in the character of a Southern man are not unfrequently pride and laziness In the second place, they calculate upon the gallantry of our officers, and understand that but few of them will refuse a pretty woman any reasonable request, while many of them will stretch things to accommodate the fair suppliants for favors How well these practices comport with true manliness and how fitly they contradict all the absurd charges against Northern men as brutal ravishers and bloodthirsty fiends

Maryland —Maryland at this moment offers more inducements for the emigration of Northern and foreign labor than any other State of the Union The late very large exodus from that State of free negr[illegible] and slave labor, for service in connection with our military operations has already practically to a very great extent, denuded her of the labor with which agriculture was prosecuted everywhere throughout her limits, except in the western c[illegible]unties and the immediate vicinity of Baltimore, and her landholders stand ready to pay those liberally who promptly and efficiently fill the vacancies The soil, climate and other advantages which Maryland offers to settlers from the North and Europe in search of work and homes, are just now unequaled From three to five th[illegible]usand such laborers and their families could at this moment find constant, profitable and otherwise most advantageous employment in the counties of Talbot and Dorchester alone, where a white laboring population can live better, enjoying all the luxuries of the oysters, fish, game etc, for which those counties are so justly celebrated, than anywhere else in the United States It will be well for the Emigrant Aid Societies of New York to turn their attention at once to the many superior advantages offered by these counties of Maryland as homes for honest, and efficient workmen, whether mechanics or farm hands, now daily reaching our shores from abroad —Washington Star

The National Rule in New Orleans —A correspondent writes 'We find that the military city government has paid debts repudiated and over due, and necessary expenses additional to the expenses of any former government, the enormous sum of $904,643 41, and yet the sum total of the expenses is $720,919 [illegible]5 less than in the year before, while the city was governed by Secessionists duly elected by the people—a saving of over $1,600 000 No wonder the taxpayers are pleased at the new regime Some three months ago Gen Shepley called together some twenty of the wealthiest and most influential of the loyal citizens and asked their opinion as to the propriety of ordering an election of a city government by the people But with one voice they adjured him to do no such thing 'Never before,' they said, 'have we had so upright safe, and economical a city government as since you Yankees came here Our streets have been cleaned, great lakes of stagnant water, which bred pestilence and disease have been drained, our police force is perfect and we who for years have not dared to walk through St Charles street after nightfall, are now perfectly safe in any part of the city at any time of the day or night, you have saved forty per cent of the yearly expense of administering the government and you have saved the credit of the city by paying $500 000 of overdue or repudiated debts For Heaven s sake put off an election as long as you can'"

New Game of Billiards —During the recent bombardment of Fort Wagner from the new Ironsides, it was found impossible to drive balls through the sand and cott[illegible]n of which the works are made, or to elevate the guns so as to throw the sh[illegible]t in as from a mortar The gunners resorted to the expedient of depressing the pieces whereby the balls striking the water about fifty yards from the beach bounded upward and over into the fortress This was remarkably su[illegible]ssful "The[illegible] are what I call billiards" said the captain watching the firing [illegible] on the [illegible] and pocket the ball in the first every time"

It is reported that a well known General in the Army of the Potomac had made arrangements to give a grand ball and [illegible] his head quarters when a st[illegible] was [illegible] from the [illegible] in which it was stated that the only ball recognized in that army were [illegible] ball

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause as long as they can be sold hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF [illegible]

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S" German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes whose life to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA August [illegible]

Messrs Jones & Evans Well gentlemen, your Hoofland s German Bitters [illegible] my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery [illegible] under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the [illegible] attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine" from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach Life could not last under these circumstances and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street advised me as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now thank God for it getting better Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months for gentlemen I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone, restored to life
